

Find Your Well Driller Data

Driller reports are required to be submitted to Mass DEP. The department has been working on updating older reports into a new searchable database. The website is <http://public.dep.state.ma.us/searchwell>. Fill in Carlisle and domestic well for your search. Sometimes the website doesn't function properly, so just try again another day. About 75% of Carlisle wells are supposed to be listed.