From the Director's Desk...

Oh my goodness, it's time to take a BREATH! Anybody else feel like tornado just hit their house? January is a great time to just slow down, enjoy the view out the window, and read a good book. Carlisle's Community Read "The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks" is definitely on my list. Our Book Club is reading "The Gift of Rain" by Tan Twan Eng. Hope I get time to cuddle up with that one. Once you are ready to get out of the house, we have plenty of ways to get you around, so check out this month's calendar, and give us a call. We hope to see you soon!

Keep warm, Debi

Carlisle Community Conversations

All sessions Tuesdays at 11am

Hollis Room at the Gleason Public Library

January 3 - Carlisle Community Read with Martha Patten, Librarian

Carlisle librarians and volunteers will lead a discussion of this year's community-wide read "The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot." Stay tuned for the schedule of book discussions and programs. Henrietta Lacks, known to scientists as HeLa, was a poor black tobacco farmer whose cells - taken without her knowledge in 1951 - became one of the most important tools in medicine, vital for developing the polio vaccine, cloning, gene mapping, in vitro fertilization, and more. This bestseller depicts a collision between ethics, race, and medicine; of scientific discovery and faith healing; and of a daughter consumed with questions about the mother she never knew. Gather those thoughts and bring questions, as we share reactions to the book. More community read events, sponsored by the Friends of the Gleason Public Library, will be held throughout January. Visit www.gleasonlibrary.org for more information. Copies of "The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks" are on sale at the library now, or request your copy through the Library's catalog. Downloadable audio and ebooks can be found at <http://mvlc.lib.overdrive.com/>.

January 17 - Winemaking with Dan Dillon

After retiring from Welch's (the grape juice company) and watching the grapes grow for 26 years, Dan Dillon decided to try his own hand at growing grapes. During Dan's presentation, he will show how grapes can be made into wine, by harvesting, crushing, and pressing them, then racking the juice in carboys to settle out the solids, and finally, fermenting the juice with just the right yeast, at just the right temperature for just the right amount of time. The result, hopefully, is a drinkable wine! The process can be significantly simplified with the wine kits now on the market.

February 7 - WIQH and CCTV with Ned Roos and Lindsay Alaimo

Did you know that Carlisle has its own TV station and its own radio station? They both are based at CCHS but are part of the Carlisle Community. What do these local media outlets do? What kinds of programs do they air? How can you become a producer of your own TV show? Lindsay Alaimo, Executive Director of CCTV, Carlisle and Concord's local TV public access studio, and Ned Roos, Station Manager of Concord CCHS' student-run radio station, WIQH, will fill you in on what's happening with your very local media.

A NOTE OF THANKS FROM THE FRIENDS OF CARLISLE COA

Did you know that all the donations that the Friends of the Carlisle COA, organized in 1994, receive each year go directly and totally to support COA programs that benefit our seniors? (nearly 21% of the population & growing). For the past 17 years, the Friends have supplemented town funds and state grants in order to make growing older in Carlisle a viable option. The Friends want to thank you for your past generosity and hope that you will continue to support them when the needs are even greater this year.

Your donations are used to provide fuel assistance, food certificates, podiatry and blood pressure clinics, large-print books and tapes for the library and medical equipment. In addition, the Friends contribute to the Town Elderly and Disabled Fund for property tax reduction, sponsor the well-attended Cultural and Health Lecture Series with the Gleason Library, and subsidize many fitness classes, monthly breakfasts, luncheons and trips.

Many thanks again to all who have already donated this year. Donations small and large are always very much appreciated. We promise to keep doing our best to ensure that your gift is used wisely.

Your tax-deductible check can be sent to: Friends of Carlisle COA, PO Box 38, Carlisle, MA 01741
